

MEDIUM PLUMBING & HEATING CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR

WINNER: MICK O'SHEA HEATING & PLUMBING

ick O'Shea Heating & Plumbing has been named as the Medium Plumbing & Heating Contractor of the Year.

The judges praised the "high calibre submission" adding, "the over-whelming view of the judges is that Mick O'Shea Heating & Plumbing is a company that is positively driving the standards of this industry forward".

Since the company was formed in 1980, Mick O'Shea Heating & Plumbing has been a frontrunner, combining traditional levels of personal service with the latest advances in technology and techniques.

The company retains a reputation for high quality installations and this experience extends across all sectors of domestic and commercial projects, residential developments, healthcare, education, hotel and leisure and Public Sector work.

This is backed by strong customer loyalty, testimonials, referrals and customer satisfaction across all types of jobs - from changing a tap, to designing, installing and certifying any domestic or commercial plumbing, heating or building project.

A commitment to innovation is highlighted by the fact that the company won the prestigious Kildare Innovation & Technology Award in 2014, presented by the North Kildare Chamber, and then went on to win the renowned European Panasonic Pro Award 2014/15 for an airto-water heating design and installation in a mixed residential development in Kildare. This latest accolade once again showcases the dedication and commitment of all the team at Mick O'Shea Heating &
